

Fruits and Vegetables

Fruits grow on trees and vines. They contain the seeds of the plant.
Vegetables grow on plants, above or below the ground. They usually do not contain seeds.
Color the examples below and draw two other examples of your own

Fruit

water melon

Vegetable

broccoli

Name _____